

OZARKS STUDIES LECTURE SERIES

PSU 313, Traywick Parliamentary Room

- Monday, September 14

10:00 am

Nature and the New Deal: The CCC at Big Spring in the 1930s
Dr. Bonnie Stepenoff, Southeast Missouri State University

2:00 pm

“It is so big, this little place”: A History of Tontitown
Susan Young, Shiloh Museum (Springdale, AR)

7:00 pm

Ozarks Water Mills
Susan Young, Shiloh Museum (Springdale, AR)

- Tuesday, September 15

11:00 am

Digital Stories of the Ozarks
Ozarks Writing Project - Consultant

12:30 pm

Country Stores of the Ozarks
Dr. Brooks Blevins, Missouri State University

2:00 pm

Developing a Sense of Community: Teaching the Ozarks in Public Schools
Ozarks Writing Project - Consultant

- Wednesday, September 16

11:00 am

The Origin of “Sound on the Goose” (Note: contains period language which may be offensive)
Dr. Emmett Redd, Missouri State University

2:00 pm

From the Mayflower to the Ozarks: An American Odyssey
Dr. John Wilson, Pepperdine University

7:00 pm

The Buffalo Flows: The Story of Our First National River
Prof. Larry Foley, University of Arkansas